
LFKS Meeting Agenda

Posted by KenS - 2008/01/15 21:48

This post seems to have caused some confusion. Just to be clear, tomorrow is not our AGM. Next month is the 12 month anniversary of the club and we will hold our AGM then. We need to elect a new Chairman as Anto has stepped down and that will be done tomorrow. The new Chairman will serve a 13 month term. We will elect the remaining officers next month.

Hi,

The agenda for tomorrow's meeting will be as follows:

- Election of Chairman. As you know, Anthony has stepped down.
- Irish Federation of Aquarist Societys - Overview and proposal for LFKS to join
- Future meeting structure and venue
- Notice of AGM in February – Election of officers (bar Chairman who will serve 13 months)
- Fish Show planning - request for volunteers and allocate tasks

Hope to see you all there tomorrow at 8.30 p.m. upstairs in The Goblet, Malahide Road, Artane. Please PM me if you have any questions.
