The L.F.K.S now have there own website.

www.irishfishforum.com

It is in its infancy and will have a stunning home page with articles, a club section and tons of pictures.

The forum is up an running and it user friendly. Beginners will be treated with Kid gloves and no bickering will be tolerated. Its all about fish fish fish.

Friendly banter and constructive chat will take place.

Pay us a visit. It is for all people and not just club members. We can have two super Irish sites and not just one.

Looking forward to seeing you all there.

Ps. Looking for Admins and Moderators.
