ive been reading quiet a few posts from cfks members on the forum and thought it would be useful (for me anyway im terrible with names, and maby for others ) if we had a thread with our pictures, and if you want your first name so when we go to meetings we know whos who.

here is a topic on how to post pictures if your not sure how. click here

heres me, Ronan (not much of a photo but most recent one i have handy)

...someone wasn't using the Red-Eye reduction mode, were they?

You can remedy that to a degree with Photoshop.

Johnh, how good are you with photshop, if you can add a beard to this you've got me, failing that you will jus have to use your imagination, I have no photos with a beard and I have that since Oct 2006!!
